ACSL Ltd.

ACSL began SOTEN, a small aerial photography drone, in the U.S.

- 50 SOTEN drones have been delivered to General Pacific, Inc. strategic distributor in the US, and SOTEN sales in the U.S. has begun.
- This is the first full-scale export of industrial drones developed by ACSL, and we will continue to work with GenPac and partners to expand sales in the U.S. market.

ACSL Ltd. (Edogawa Ward, Tokyo; Satoshi Washiya, CEO, hereafter ACSL) has received an export license from the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) for the export of SOTEN, a small aerial photography drone, to the United States on November 13, 2023^{*1}, and has been making preparations for export. 50 SOTEN drones arrived at General Pacific, Inc. ("GenPac"), strategic distributor, on July 13, 2023^{*2}, and began selling SOTEN in the U.S.

This is the first full-scale export of industrial drones developed by ACSL, and we will continue to work with GenPac and our partners to expand sales in the U.S. market.

■ACSL, Inc. Board Director and CEO Cynthia Huang Comments

The arrival of so many SOTENs in the US is a big step forward in showing how serious ACSL is on growing and supporting the US market. We are excited for these drones to be deployed by customers performing a variety of critical missions and critical infrastructure inspections.

The US market has been extremely welcoming so far and we look forward to gaining more momentum as we begin sales of units and announce additional strategic partnerships.
